2nd Workshop on
Software Engineering for Functional Programming

September 8th 2026
(In Person)

Why SE4FP?

Although functional programming languages are not yet as popular as object-oriented ones, their growing relevance in the industry has become increasingly evident in recent years.

However, the application of software engineering techniques to systems built with these languages remains underexplored in academia, leaving many open questions to be investigated.

Objectives of SE4FP

- Attract more researchers interested in related topics, helping to build and strengthen the Brazilian community working in this area;
- Discuss the challenges of using functional programming languages in production systems;
- Assess the compatibility and applicability of studies conducted on object-oriented systems in the context of functional systems;
- Promote best engineering practices and tools specifically designed for systems implemented with functional programming languages.

Event Venue

- The event will take place in São Paulo, SP (Brazil), at the IME-USP.

- The venue is located just 16 km from São Paulo/Guarulhos International Airport (a 35-minute drive).
